Arrow Fact Sheet

Posted July 2011

Our Mission

Developing Christian leaders worldwide to be led more by Jesus, to lead more like Jesus and to lead more to Jesus.

Our Vision

Arrow strives to be the premier transformational learning environment in the world for Christian leaders. We seek to impact all who interact with Arrow so that they are prepared and engaged to serve and share Jesus through their lives and ministries.

Our Leadership

- Dr. Carson Pue, CEO
- Dr. Steve Brown, Vice President of Programming
- Ray Keen, Vice President of Advancement
- Rev. Darren DeGraaf, Director of Leadership Initiatives

Quick Facts

- Founded by Leighton Ford in 1991
- Dr. Carson Pue graduate from the Arrow Leadership Program in 1995
- Dr. Carson Pue became president in 1998
- Currently over 1500 alumni worldwide
- Training Leaders in 8 countries (Africa, Australia, Canada, England, Ireland, Norway, Poland, United States)

Arrow Leadership Program

- Executive Leader stream (15 months to complete, three five-day residential seminars)
- Emerging Leader stream (24 months to complete, four five-day residential seminars)
- The program begins with a personal assessment process that includes a proven combination of psychological instruments and leadership inventories as well as 360-degree feedback.
- A highly gifted and trained Leadership Partner provides personal and confidential mentoring for each Arrow leader during each residential. Each Arrow Leader also connects monthly with a mentor/coach for on-going mentoring as well as quarterly with a smaller group of Arrow peers for prayer, accountability and networking.
- Based on the personal assessment process and leadership partner coaching, each Arrow leader develops a customized leadership development plan to guide growth during the Arrow Leadership Program and beyond.
- Regular readings, practical assignments and structured experiences are an integrated component of the Arrow experience.
- The Arrow Leadership Program receives advanced standing from Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary as part of an integrated Doctor of Ministry degree through the Charlotte campus. Wheaton College Graduate School also offers significant transfer credit and tuition discounts toward their Master of Arts in Evangelism and Leadership for graduates of the Arrow Leadership Program.
- Arrow alumni from both the Emerging and Executive Streams are granted advanced standing in Canada's largest D.Min. Program at Acadia Divinity College.
