Dr. Rick Franklin (PhD)

Rick's deeply held passion to develop Jesus-centered leaders has been cultivated during the course of 35 years of ministry in a variety of parachurch, church, teaching and consulting roles in North America and internationally. In his role as Vice President of Arrow Leadership Ministries, Rick oversees growth and development in addition to providing training, coaching and consulting for leaders and ministries across the US, Canada and internationally.

In addition to completing the Arrow Leadership Program (Class 7), Rick has four post-secondary degrees (PhD, ThM, MDiv, BA). Rick and his wife, Dana, have four adult children, (two of whom are married) and an adorable grandson. You can reach Rick at: rickf@arrowleadership.org or 1.877.262.7769.

For over 30 years, Arrow Leadership has come alongside Christian leaders with a proven process that helps leaders find clarity, confidence and courage to lead well. Let us help you break through barriers, grow in capacity and lead more like Jesus for greater Kingdom impact. For more information visit: www.arrowleadership.org
