

EMERGING STREAM

Positioning leaders for Jesus-centered transformation to be led more by Jesus, lead more like Jesus, and lead more to Jesus

LEARNING FOCUS

LEADER PRACTICE

JESUS-CENTERED TRANSFORMATION

Led More by Jesus

- Reorienting with Jesus as the Leader of leaders
- Reimagining your story in God's story
- Gaining clarity and focus
- Identifying areas for growth and development

- Practices that transform body, mind and soul (sleep, solitude, sabbath, Bible reading, journaling, worship, prayer, exercise, etc.)
- Personal leadership development plan

- Experiences intimacy with Jesus
- Identity anchored in Christ
- Clear vision and calling
- Living in freedom and fullness in Christ

Leading More like Jesus

- Leading self (resiliency, humility, purity, accountability)
- Leading with others (communication, stewardship, navigating conflict, building bridges, strengthening relationships)

- Confession & forgiveness
- Real conversations – speaking truth with love
- Giving and receiving feedback
- Building trust

- Demonstrates sacrifice
- Demonstrates servanthood
- Demonstrates submission
- Demonstrates focus on living and leading for God's purposes and his glory

Leading More to Jesus

- Understanding key elements of the Gospel
- Being a Gospel ambassador
- Identifying best practices and planning for a thriving organization
- Working with a board
- Cultivating a culture that develops others

- Spiritual authority: prayer and intercession
- Standing for and seeking justice, reconciliation and compassion
- Integrating learning and faith with strategic planning and practice
- Kingdom seeking, not empire building (intentional collaboration / partnerships)

- Effectively integrates the Gospel with life and leadership practices
- Committed to building an organizational culture for people and the ministry to thrive
- Committed to developing others
- Focused on building God's kingdom
