Leader Testimonials

I've been greatly impacted in the Arrow Leadership Program to value presence over production. I've learned to work with Jesus, not for him. And to make sure my family comes before the work.

Stephen Pick, Marketplace Leader

This program has helped me to recognize the areas I need to grow in. It has provided me with tools and assessments, which have helped me through conflicts. I am a more Jesus-centered leader because I have better rhythms in my life. Arrow was helpful during the hardest ministry I have ever faced and currently still in. The way I view life and problems are through the lens of Christ. There is so much I could write but the most important thing is Arrow brought me closer to my Savior Jesus Christ. Thank you!

Claudia Roseno, Non-Profit Leader

When I was mentally tired, God refreshed me. When I was disconnected, God allowed me to be in relationships. When I was confused, through Arrow, God allowed me to fill my bucket of tools to be a better leader.

Razmig Minassian, Non-Profit Leader

I have benefited greatly from engaging with other leaders in dialogue about the realities and challenges of our areas of leadership - both from what is similar, and what is different. I loved the opportunity to rest, be refreshed, and be amongst friends in a stunning location.

Hannah Wong, Church Leader

I'm not sure that there are sufficient words to describe all of it. It has truly been life-changing, and I've seen a great change in myself and even in those whom I am leading over the past year and a half. I will always use the tools and things I've learned to be led more by Jesus, lead more like Jesus, and lead people more to Jesus.

Joshua Brown, Church Leader

The Arrow program allows you to enter a formal learning environment that is practical yet transformative. Reflecting on your past, inviting God’s healing and wholeness, contemplating your God-given gifts and passions and refining them with intentional learning, plus discerning God’s plans and holding results loosely is a recipe for flourishing. And God wants that for you. So go to Arrow. It will bless you, your life, and your leadership.
